

2010 Grant Recipients - Grants total $85,000

Christian Help, Inc ($10,000) offers supportive affordable housing through a life skills project in which each family helps to rehab a mobile home. Each family has an 18 month plan for home ownership. [Click here to go to the Christian Help, Inc. Web site.]

Coburn Place Safe Haven ($5,000) provides safe, affordable housing and supportive services to women and children who are homeless because of leaving abusive situations. [Click here to go to the Christian Help, Inc. Web site.]

Dayspring Center ($5,000) provides emergency and transitional housing plus supportive services to families. [Click here to go to the Dayspring Center Web site]

Desert Rose ($5,000) gives women in central Indiana a safe, protected retreat from abuse for them and their children, coupled with resources and guidance to help them rebuild their lives free from domestic violence. [Click here to go to the Desert Rose Web site.]

Dove Recovery House for Women ($5,000) provides housing for women with drug and alcohol addictions.

Gennesaret Free Clinic ($5,000) runs the Health Recovery Program that houses men during their recovery from a hospital stay while providing supportive services on the road to permanent housing.[Click here to go to the Gennesaret Free Clinic Web site.]

Hancock Hope House ($15,000) provides shelter services for families and single men from Hancock, Rush and Shelby counties.

Holy Family Transitional Housing ($5,000) offers shelter and services to help families break the cycle of homelessness, providing the stability necessary to be successful in school, work and life.[Click here to go to the Holy Family Transitional Housing Web site.]

Mary Rigg Neighborhood Center ($10,000) maintains a unique program called Fostering Independence for young adults who have aged out of foster care and are homeless. Residents live in community and are provided with supportive services.[Click here to go to the Mary Rigg Neighborhood Center Web site.]

Partners in Housing ($5,000) operates 350 units of affordable permanent supportive housing throughout Marion County.[Click here to go to the Partners in Housing Development Corporation Web site.]

Pathway to Recovery ($10,000) operates 5 housing programs providing a seamless continuum of care beginning with supportive housing and ending with permanent housing for over 70 homeless participants battling mental health and substance abuse issues including 11 families. [Click here to learn more about Pathway to Recovery.]

Sheltering Wings Center for Women ($5,000) gives women in central Indiana a safe, protected retreat from abuse for them and their children, coupled with resources and guidance to help them rebuild their lives free from domestic violence. [Click here to go to the Sheltering Wings Center for Women Web site.]